

WHO WE ARE

“...humanity at its best and worst”

Honest Pint Theatre Company is a small professional theatre company located in Raleigh, NC. Honest Pint was born in the summer of 2013. Their inaugural offering was a critically acclaimed production of A STEADY RAIN by Keith Huff. They followed that production with David Stevens' timely and poignant father/son play THE SUM OF US. Honest Pint's production of Sharr White's ANNAPURNA, won awards for Set Design, Acting, and Best Drama at the Inaugural Triangle Theatre awards. Most recently, Honest Pint produced critically acclaimed productions of William Shakespeare's HAMLET (UNCUT) and the regional premiere of THE NIGHT ALIVE by Conor McPherson.

OUR MISSION

“...astutely mirroring the human flaws”

Honest Pint Theatre Company believes: “... the purpose of playing, whose end, both first and now, was and is, to hold, as 't were, a mirror up to nature; to show virtue her own feature, scorn her own image, and the very age and body of the time his form and pressure, “...and that this mirror should show who we are; what and how we love, what and how we hate, what we're doing right in the world, what we're doing wrong; that mirror should show the state of humanity as it is. It should be affirming as well as condemning. It should make us think; it should make us laugh; it should make us cry. It should be honest.

WHERE ARE WE HEADED?

“If it's the hard stuff you're after, Honest Pint has plenty to pour...”

Theatre has the power to illuminate, transform and heal. We know that live theatre is an essential part of the cultural richness of a community, and that participating in community events enriches the quality of our personal lives, our families, and the quality of our work.

In the coming months, Honest Pint will expand our programming to include:

- HALF PINT, a youth ensemble focused on devised theatre:
- HOME BREW a series that will workshop and develop plays written here in North Carolina
- MICRO BREW a series that brings short plays to life
- KING LEAR, (a touring production in partnership with Sweet Tea Shakespeare and William Peace University) and,
- The regional premier of Bathsheba Doran's THE MYSTERY OF LOVE AND SEX.

HOW DO WE GET THERE?

“...a marriage of compelling acting and affecting writing, providing one of the season’s most satisfying productions.”

Our success over the last four years has something we are proud of, but we didn’t do it alone!

We are grateful to those who support us every day, and that includes our directors, actors, designers, venue hosts, audiences, and anyone who reads and shares one of our Facebook statuses. And now, this list could include you! By coming a Patron, you can help us reach our goals and support local, homegrown theatre. Not only will your support help us expand our programming as indicated above, but you will also help us realize things such as:

- Providing the ability for Honest Pint to produce shows across North Carolina.
 - Culturally underserved areas in our region need to see and hear some of the stories that we tell. We would love to be able to share them with people in eastern and western NC.
- Increasing actor/director/tech stipends
 - This allows us to use local artists and create a community that can earn hard-earned wages making art.
- Finding venues in which to produce our shows and projects. Commercial space in the Triangle area is at a premium and rents are costly. The smallest theatre companies in the area actually pay the most for space. Honest Pint has no “special arrangement” with the City of Raleigh concerning venue space so we have to pay hefty rental fees.
- Subsidizing ticket costs for students and young adults who otherwise would not be able to afford a ticket a live Honest Pint show.

LET'S BE HONEST

“...serves as a perfect example of live theater’s spellbinding power and emotional thrust.”

- It’s sometimes difficult to support theatre companies, even with the best of intentions.
 - Your schedule gets away from you and you miss buying tickets for shows you want to see. There’s a perception that tickets are too expensive. Netflix beckons...
 - And we are constantly inundated with groups asking for donations of financial support multiple times a year. Even if you want to support them all, it is difficult to cut a check each and every time. People rarely budget for charitable gifts.

So.....What if the model of support could change? What if you could support the arts all year long and do it at the level that fits your budget, and in a way that was seamless and easy for you? ”

Many of us have Netflix, Hulu, or other streaming services that we pay for on a monthly basis. Netflix is roughly $9.00 a month or $96 a year. What if you could donate monthly to a theatre company and get LIVE theatre and other experiences as a result! Just imagine for the low cost of $10.00 a month, Honest Pint would get $120 a year. That $120 would cover the cost of one evening’s rights for a production. (Most royalties are $100/night).

For the same cost as one or two visits to Starbucks or one movie theater ticket per month, you can help sustain our company.
