CONNIE

i remember when everybody was my size. Boy that was great. But then everybody started moving up and up....but I kept hoping and praying....'cause I was into dancing then, and I was good. And I wanted so much to grow up to be a prima ballerina. Then I went out for cheerleader. And they told me: "No dixie, you'll get lost on the football field. The pom-poms are bigger than you. I spent my whole childhood waiting to grow. But you see, the only thing about me that grew was my desire. I was this peanut on pointe. That was my whole trip...my size. It still is. God, my last show I was thirty two, and I played a fourteen year-old brat.
